SYNOPSIS

Welcome to the iPlanet – a corporate-controlled, dystopian world where individuality is forbidden, and musical instruments are banned. Globalsoft, a powerful corporation led by the tyrannical Killer Queen, ensures conformity by brainwashing citizens through mindless pop music and digital content. Creativity, rebellion, and free thought are things of the past.

But all hope is not lost. A small group of rebels known as the Bohemians believe in a time when rock ‘n’ roll ruled the world. They dream of the return of real music and are searching for a long-lost hero who will bring it back. Their legends speak of a prophecy – someone who will restore the spirit of rock.

Enter Galileo Figaro, a misfit youth who hears strange words and melodies in his head—remnants of the ancient rock anthems now long forgotten. When he meets the sharp-tongued and defiant Scaramouche, the two are forced to flee Globalsoft’s control and join the Bohemians in their fight for freedom.

Together, they set out to rediscover the sacred place where rock music lives on – a mythical site known as the “Place of Living Rock.” Along the way, they must outwit the Killer Queen, her henchman Khashoggi, and the forces determined to keep the world silent. But with determination, courage, and the power of Queen’s iconic music, Galileo and Scaramouche learn that the spirit of rock can never truly be silenced.

Featuring over 20 of Queen’s greatest hits – including We Are the Champions, Bohemian Rhapsody, Another One Bites the Dust, and Somebody to Love – We Will Rock You: School Edition is a celebration of freedom, self-expression, and the unstoppable power of music.

BEN ELTON

Ben Elton is a celebrated British writer, comedian and playwright, widely recognised for his clever, fast-paced humour and bold storytelling. He rose to fame in the 1980s as a writer for hit television comedies like The Young Ones and Blackadder, before going on to write novels, screenplays and stage productions.

In We Will Rock You, Elton brings his trademark wit and creativity to the stage, crafting a futuristic story that champions freedom, individuality, and the enduring power of music. His collaboration with Queen resulted in a high-energy musical packed with heart, rebellion and laughter.

Since its West End debut in 2002, the show has become a global sensation, entertaining millions around the world.

QUEEN

Queen is one of the most iconic rock bands in music history, known for their powerful sound, theatrical performances, and genre-defying style.

Formed in London in 1970, the band featured Freddie Mercury (lead vocals), Brian May (guitar), Roger Taylor (drums), and John Deacon (bass).

Together, they created some of the most beloved and enduring songs of all time that pushed the boundaries of rock music and created a legacy that continues to inspire generations. Their music blends rock, opera, pop and funk in a way that is instantly recognisable.

We Will Rock You features many of their unforgettable hits, including I Want It All, Headlong, Hammer to Fall, and No-One but You (Only the Good Die Young). The show celebrates Queen's message of self-expression, freedom, and the power of music to bring people together.

IN REHEARSAL

During school holiday rehearsals the cast received a thrilling surprise with a visit from four special guests. Joining them were Simon Croft, former principal guitarist from the original Queen/Ben Elton worldwide productions of We Will Rock You, along with cast members from PLOS's 2025 musical production: Martika Cetinich (Scaramouche), Duane McGregor (Galileo), and Peter Noble (Buddy).

The cast was incredibly grateful for their presence, generosity, and the time they took to participate in a Q&A session. Their insights, encouragement, and support left a lasting impression and were truly appreciated by all.

Message from the DIRECTOR

Last year, when I was offered the job of directing Rowville Secondary College's 'SPAMALOT' I answered with a resounding yes.

Cut to a year later and I am now working at the school teaching drama as well as directing and choreographing my second show here... 'We Will Rock You'.

The choice to come back for round two (as well as to seek employment here) was a no-brainer for me. I have worked in various schools, done my placement rounds in numerous drama classrooms across Victoria and yet... the students at Rowville are some of the most talented and dedicated that I have ever had the privilege of working with.

We expect a lot from our students. We run our rehearsals with the utmost professionalism and focus to which the students always rise to the occasion. During a particular rehearsal last term after uttering my go-to phrase "let's run it again... more energy", I heard one of the students exclaim "wow... she's scary!". However, all scariness aside, no matter how hard we ask our Rowville students to work or how hard we challenge them, they bring dedication, commitment and the joy of performing to each and every rehearsal.

This is the final show for many of our Year 12s. This cohort of young people are nothing short of inspiring. As I walked past a group of Year 7 students one evening at production camp, I heard them gushing over our Year 12 leads; "Wow... that will be us one day... then we'll have to set the standard like they do!" How incredible that our production allows our young performers to meet students from each and every year level, developing role models and mentors for our younger cast members, and creating new and beautiful friendships.

I would like to thank Madeline, Julia, Britt, Kacey, Mr. Martin, Paola, David and Jenn who have made the most incredible and supportive production team. Without these spectacular humans, this show wouldn't be possible. It is only with their dedication and their hours and hours of (free) labour that Rowville's production program is possible. They support me and my mad ideas, they are there when the inevitable tech week breakdown occurs but most importantly, they care about what this program does for the kids. Production brings joy, safety and is the reason many of our students come to school. I am so grateful for them, and this program.

So, without further ado, get ready to clap, sing and rock out as our insanely talented cast bring you our 2025 production... 'We Will Rock You'.

The production is something really special to everyone, we all try our best every year and grow closer over the times between the productions. We are all like family and we all get to know new people every year! This year will be my third and final Rowville production and I will miss doing them as they bring so much joy to everyone! Camp is also one of the best things about production as we all work with each other in a space outside of school and really get to know one another. The teachers also put in so much effort for everyone every year so that we can have the best shows and I will miss all of them.

Dash Hunter-Clear

We Will Rock You has been a massive part of my life this year and I have really noticed myself step up to the role of Galileo. I am really enjoying putting my all into this character and without a doubt this has been my favourite production. Everyone is putting in so much effort and always with a smile on everybody's faces which is so important.

Lucas Arnold

Incredibly grateful for this show, and I'd like to dedicate my performance to my Grandad, Bob.

Grace Jemison

To my dad, who always knew I'd do well on a stage.

Storm Pascua

I'm so grateful to have the absolute privilege of knowing every amazing person who was involved in this show. I'm gonna miss this so much, but keep in mind. "Chillax! It's graduation, your life is just beginning" xoxo

Alyx Chalkley

"We are the Champions my friends". Grateful to share the stage with an incredible group of people, thank you for every memory and moment made through this show. Much love xxx

Mackenzie Naylor

Production has been one of my favourite parts of high school! The memories and friendships made are unmatched and will last a lifetime.

Maali Albert

So happy to be able to work with this amazing group of people. We Will Rock You!!

Elizabeth Hon

I'll miss every bit of the chaos and fun while being part of the backstage crew since 2022 Stories in the Dark!

Cassandra Moore

High school wasn't meant to last forever. It's our last chance for us to shine.
